

Northland™

Lighting during the turn of the 20th century often used reflective colors to do more with less. Northland™ draws on this idea, combining a white inner finish with a Matte Black or Brushed Aluminum exterior finish. The result is a vintage factory style that fills an area with light.