

The Shima Collection is a study of contrasts: contrasting finishes and designs. The soft contemporary pendant features a body that appears to be shifted from the center, for a subtle nod to art deco design. The soft white diffuser glows softly from within using an integrated LED light.